You Won't Remember This
I'm suddenly so irresistible
You act like I'm the one you love the most
When you're like this
You wrap your arms around my neck
I drive you home so you won't wreck

Chorus
You won't remember this
You won't remember this
You won't remember this tomorrow
We passionately kiss but
You won't remember this
You won't remember this tomorrow

You're losing all your inhibitions
(Hope you don't lose your lunch)
I know when you're in this condition
I shouldn't believe too much
Cause when the party's over
All you'll feel is a hangover

Chorus

We passionately kiss but
You won't remember this
You won't remember this tomorrow
