Visit "Dressed In White" on MotoLyrics.com

Theme: mike

She's wearing white again but colours always betray
Don't look into her eyes, there's an evil darkness inside

Theme: mike

You might see her but she is not here
Leave her alone don't get to near
One touch and you'll disappear
What a scream you'll never hear

She carries a secret

And where she must go...you'll never know

Solo: mike

She carries a secret

And where she must go...you'll never know

Solo: andy - theme: mike

Searching but not for a home

A restless soul all on its own

Always dressed in white

As she passes on through the night

She carries a secret

And where she must go...you'll never know

Solo: mike - andy - mike - andy - mike

She carries a secret

And where she must go...you'll never know
