I want you to stop right there, baby
Baby, and try to understand
Hey, i might have been your fool for a while, baby
But i know i'm a good loving man
And you shouldn't lie to me, baby
Makes me mad as a man can be

I know when you got home last night
Your kissing me was your plan
I know you were just faking me, baby
'cause you'd been out with your other man
And you shouldn't lie to me, baby
Makes me mad as a man can be

Hey, i can't quit you, baby
'cause you're honey but the bees don't know
There's one thing i got to tell you, little girl
Just one thing before i go
That is you shouldn't lie to me, baby
Makes me mad as a man can be
