

King Crimson

"Impossible"

Visit "Impossible" on MotoLyrics.com

If they had ever told me how sweet a kiss could be
I would have said "impossible, impossible for me"
And if they said i'd find you beyond the rainbow's end
I would have said "impossible, impossible, my friend"

To dream about what might have been
Is strange enough for me
But now it seems i'm living in A dream too beautiful to be

If they had said a moonbeam could calm a stormy sea
I would have said "impossible" but now at last i see
That nothing is impossible if you are here with me

instrumental interlude

I would have said "impossible" but now at last i see
That nothing is impossible if you are here with me

Visit King Crimson page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.