Friday night

Four shadows heading for the dark
Four shadows heading for the past Four shadows heading for the graves in the wooded maze
Four shadows looking for the place without a trace
Midnight and they're here, midnight
The old burial ground..is part of the estate Hidden by the heavy trees..where Jean Le Noir he sleeps
The shadows move
They're here to feed the dead..the shadows move
'Cause there is life after death
Be patient and you will see
There is life after death
Be patient and you will see
Oh it must never end..never end..no
Midnight and they're here, midnight
Doctor Le Croix, he's a voodoo sorcerer
Madame Sarita, she's got the snake in her
And Lula Chevalier, she's the girl that no one ever sees Salem the servant, he belongs to the estate
The shadows move
They're here to feed the dead..the shadows move
The Lafayettes are unaware..their butler Salem, he is here
Voodoo has been his life..Voodoo cuts deep like a knife
The shadows move
They're here to feed the dead..the shadows move
'Cause there is Life after death
Be patient and you will see
There is life after death
Be patient and you will see
Oh it must never end..never end Midnight and they're here, midnight Midnight..... Life after death.....
