Once inside, everything would change before my eyes
No more decay
Glorious beauty had taken it's place But in horror... I watched as the wolf... began it's skin to shed
I grabbed a silver crucifix expecting evil to be next To the floor it fell, the crucifix, the wolf was no more a beast
Instead a lady only dreams can create Creeping deep into the heart I never had
"i'll love you forever... never leave"
It was love at first sight, in true love there is no wrong or right
I didn't care from where she came, just her name...
angel
Then a kiss, soft and warm, my love, am I really not alone?
Nights of heavenly sin, in the house of god, I found...
true love

Nights of heavenly sin, in the house of god, I found...
true love
"i'll love you forever... never leave"
To the floor it fell, the crucifix, the wolf was no more a
beast
Instead a lady only dreams can create
Creeping deep into the heart I never had
I didn't care from where she came, just her name...
angel
Then a kiss, soft and warm, my love, am I really not alone?
Nights of heavenly sin, in the house of god, I found...
true love
Nights of heavenly sin, in the house of god, I found...
true love
Angel... angel... angel... angel where are you now?
