

King Missile "No Point"

Visit "No Point" on MotoLyrics.com

There is no point to life
There is no point to death
There is no point in continuing our meetings
There is no point in not continuing our meetings

There is no point is going out
There is no point in staying in No point in gaining weight
And no point in keeping trim
There is no point in answering the phone or opening the mail

There is no point in getting drunk or doing drugs

And there is no point in staying sober
There is no point in needing someone and no point in being alone
There is no point in doing nothing and no point in not doing nothing

These are all good points, yet none of them lead anywhere
None of them are points at all
There are no points
There is no point
