Whatever you do don't tell her you love her she won't take it well
She could pierce me with the tears that I wanted to dry...
But was always always kept away
All I ever did was stick to the plan and whisper "I Love You"
In a car filled with tears and ice tears and ice

Whatever you do don't tell her you love her
Whatever you do don't tell her you love her

After all the swords and words are dropped to make me lighter
I escape and run away but she still looks beautiful behind me
I know every word she said that gracefully licked my ear with her sharp Tongue of ice
tears and ice

Whatever you do don't tell her you love her
Whatever you do don't tell her you love her
Whatever you do don't tell her you love her
Whatever you do don't tell her you love her

I know every move she made Every colour that she wore
I mapped every curve she had Every pout she pursed and why.

Don't

Whatever you do don't tell her you love her
Whatever you do don't tell her you love her
Whatever you do don't tell her you love her
Whatever you do don't tell her you love her
