That's the third time that you passed it
Your turn to lovers lane
You're driving her in circles
You're driving me insane
This is your conscious speaking
Now I don't mean to pry
But how could you miss that kiss me look
That's right there in her eye
Don't you know its now or never (come on man and get it together)

(CHORUS)

Park the pick-up
And kiss the girl
Find a spot with a pretty view
And pull her over next to you
The whole worlds your oyster
And she's your pearl
Now park the pick-up
And kiss the girl

Now i ain't tryin to scare you
But you better get this right
You only get so many chances
So many moonlit nights
And I wouldn't be your conscious if i could lie to you
So the truth is times wastin
So its time to make your move
Come on turn up the music
(before you say something stupid)

(CHORUS)

Park the pick-up
And kiss the girl
Find a spot with a pretty view
And pull her over next to you
The whole worlds your oyster
And she's your pearl
Now park the pick-up
And kiss the girl

kiss the girl

Come on turn up the music
(before you do something stupid)

(CHORUS)

Park the pick-up
And kiss the girl
Find a spot with a pretty view
And pull her over next to you
The whole worlds your oyster
And she's your pearl
Now park the pick-up
And kiss the girl

Park the pick-up
kiss the girl(x2)

The whole worlds your oyster
and she's your pearl

So park the pick-up
and kiss the girl

(i'm gonna park right over here)
