"Bebop"

A drop in the grey an awful truth
These momentums all about you
This confusion is clearer than most
My freedom has been challenged

Chains freedom buried with in
Walls of this kingdom always been thin
Stubborn fragile full of contempt
Addicted to this prison

Bebop be alive ya'll
Awhop boba lo bop a wop bam boom!

Fighting the balance in between
Biting and living terrible scenes
Emotional animals standing to fall
Addicted to religion
God is something I don't understand
I know nothing it's what I am
Tsunamis, earthquakes, terrible things
A hundred million reasons

Awhop boba lo bop a wop bam boom!
