ozone disappearing in the sky bud man asking us why ask why if I could find my magazine this bug would die
I complain
China boy standing up to a tank southern boy living in the house of yanks if I can't seem to get my motorbike to crank I complain
complain so much easier small kid begging for a crumb of bread next kid bloated lying nearly dead I wonder what to take for my aching head
I complain
lots of people crying for a little rain whole nation learning how to live with pain I don't know how I'm gonna clean this little stain

I complain.
complain so much easier
black man singing Mississippi blues Africa starves a little baby drools I'm trying to figure out all the basketball rules
I complain
Mr. Rush Limbaugh giving me the facts treetops falling and the newsman yaks I'm thinking about Carter and how I'm gonna be taxed
hey
complain so much easier
