As I wandered
Walked along on a lazy path
I shook a hand
He seemed to know so much more

So I listened
Tried my best just to understand
Then I followed
To where I knew nothing of

Over the hill
Come see the thrill awaiting you
There's so much more
Go through the door

Walk in the big parade
Learn just what to say
They will all try to fool you
Don't believe anything
I'm your everything
They will all try to fool you

And don't ever think
You'll see another friend
See another friend

As time went on
We were friends of a different kind
But something there
Always tearing apart

Standing tall
On a surface of glass and rain
We traveled on
With a hope and a prayer

Over the hill
Come see the thrill awaiting you
There's so much more
Go through the door

Walk in the big parade

Learn just what to say
They will all try to fool you
Don't believe anything
I'm your everything
They will all try to fool you

And don't ever think
You'll find a better friend

Walk in the big parade
Learn just what to say
They will all try to fool you
Don't believe anything
I'm your everything
They will all try to fool you

Walk in the big parade
Learn just what to say
Don't believe anything
I'm your everything

And don't ever think
That I could do you wrong
