I've got a lot I call my own
My house is full of things
But its just an empty home
And all day long I walk around
Seeing reminders and reliving all I've found
She's gone away

She... she's gone away
She's gone away
She left today
Hey hey
She... she's gone away
She's gone away
She wouldn't stay
Hey hey

I took your brother to the zoo
The sky was falling
And he seemed to know it too
He turned to me and said
What a waste
And I said...

Someday you'll know it
If you ever get the taste

She's gone away
Yeah!

She... she's gone away
She's gone away
Hey hey
She... she's gone away
She's gone away
She wouldn't stay
Hey hey

I took your brother to the zoo...
