A Holy Flame that burns inside
And Only I know the pain tonight
'cause I try to save myself
From the Grave
In the night Evil Eyes are watching me
Dying Alone

Back to my life - Back to my pain
Every second I've lived
Dark is the way of memory's eyes

My heart is heavy again...

Fear is the key of our decay
Frozen in pieces of my dream
Waves on the sirens who call my name
Down in the ocean of life

Oh All I Know, it's too late for the prayer
Oh-All I Want , is the peace of my mind
