Do you feel the danger?
You cannot fool the maker

Looking up to the sky
Hard to breathe, it burns my eyes
Desert land, poison rain
Can't sit back when I know who's to blame

Do you feel the danger?

Blackened tides on the sand
Still they're raping our holy land
In our eyes so afraid
Is our future the price they have paid?

Blood on the land, blood on their hands
Ready to witness the fall of man
Hiding their eyes, telling us lies
Ready to shatter the dream of man

Do you feel the danger?
You cannot fool the maker
Do you feel the danger? The danger

They will take all they can
Then pretend they don't understand
For the lies that they tell
All I know is I'll see you in hell

Blood on the land, blood on their hands
Ready to witness the fall of man
Hiding their eyes, telling us lies
Ready to shatter the dream of man

Blood on the land, blood on their hands
Ready to witness the fall of man
Hiding their eyes, telling us lies
Ready to shatter the dream of man
