Do you know why I'm cold as ice?
Why we don't seem to harmonize?
Don't care to talk
Can't even cry

With a glove of stone
You've got no control
All the words you say
Are nothing but lies

I can handle it once or twice
Being stepped on is part of life
But not by you
Don't even try

With a glove of stone
You've got no control
Like a smile in pain
I couldn't reply

Now you wonder what's on my mind
Whether you have been wrong or right
It's up to you
Time to decide

With a glove of stone
You've got no control
All the words you say
Are nothing but lies

With a glove of stone
You've got no control
Like a smile in pain
I couldn't reply

Like smile in pain
I couldn't reply

Ohh, it's your choice to change
If love is your guide
