

Kingdom Come "Need A Free Mind"

Visit "Need A Free Mind" on MotoLyrics.com

I've tried to see the good I gave it all I could it didn't work my love not how it should compromising love
the sadness of your touch the signs are all so clear I've had enough

need a free mind
not a lover like you independent but mine - ooh

[Chorus:]

holding out, waiting for - someone conquering my heart nothing's clear, when you're near like a shadow in the dark

I'm dragging guilt behind behaving so unkind
it's bringing out the bad from deep inside

I'm sure not blaming you nothing you could do
life can take a turn
and often burns
