I've watched the open line, I'd swing the sun up in the sky
I threw down the screens and opened up the door
The sun came streaming in and it shone out through your eyes
As you laughed and threw your gospel on the floor, cry

Hey, spirit of joy
Oh, you make this fool feel so wise
Hey, spirit of joy
Feels so good, you came into my life

But your mind is where your mouth is and I'll tell the truth today
I see you're the one that I've been waiting for You've not been 'round this way already, so now my time has come
And now I see just what I'm looking for, cry

Hey, spirit of joy
Well, you make this fool feel so wise
Hey, spirit of joy
Feels so good since you came into my life

Hey, spirit of joy
Feel the daylight break into a day
Hey, spirit of joy
Love

Hey, spirit of joy
Love
Hey, spirit of joy
Love

Hey, spirit of joy
Love's comin', come on
Hey, spirit of joy
Feel it comin', yeah, yeah

Hey, spirit of joy
