And I sat down
And said, "I don't want to suffer"
But she told me
She had nothing to offer, no more

I sat down
And said "I don't want to suffer"
But she told me
She had nothing to offer, no more

Now that I know
That I did not, I didn't know
Now that I know
That I did not, I didn't know
Now that I know
That I did not know you then
I didn't know you

Now that I know
That I did not, I didn't know
Now that I know
That I did not, I didn't know
Now that I know
That I did not know you then

Now that I know
That I did not, I didn't know
Now that I know
That I did not, I didn't know
Now that I know
That I did not know you then
