You fault, my pride
dont ever need to 'pologize.
As your lips, unfold
shaken purple from the cold.

You better learn to crawl,
you better learn to crawl.
Before i walk away,
before i walk away.

You broke, my mouth
the bloody bits are spittin out.
Is your grave, unscathed
the worm is countin down the days.

He wants to see you crawl,
he wants to see you crawl.
Before i walk away,
before i walk away.

The reds, the whites and abused
the crucified USA.
As their hypocrisy unfolds,
oh hell is truly on its way.

As the rat, and the fly
they're searchin for an alibi.
As we await, the wrath
they never went to sunday mass.

They want to see us crawl,
they want to see us crawl.
Before they walk away,
before they walk away.

The reds, the whites and abused
the crucified USA.
As the hypocrisy unfolds,
oh hell is truly on its way.
