On the plane
On the plane
Off to see the city girls again Only bringing what they carry on So's let you know I won't be long Tippin beers (or ticklin beards) its cold as hell
And the motherfuckers gonna go to jail

Honestly I can see the giggling virgin overlookin me Time to put together what they say although it wouldn't matter anyway tipping beers its cold as hell
and the motherfuckers gonna go to jail

cuz rememo except for home its personal but they need to know

I'm overdue another round
To gain control and take me down You're all tied up as you should be
And I'll be cutting out naturally

Tipping beers its cold as jail
And the motherfuckers gonna go to hell
