Love the days
She's gone for a moment
I don't know which way she was going
Lord, it's been
A long warm November
I know now
She acts like her mother
I've been holding on
Here forever
And I don't know where she's going
But hopefully
She knows not to come back now

CHORUS:

Kicking the door on the floor
Went on a woman prowling (Woo Hoo)
Sucking and kissing the night away
When I'm taking back that (Woo Hoo)
Baby, you know what I can hold my own
When I'm feeling (Woo Hoo)
Baby, you know, that I could just sail away

Gone away
She's been gone for a moment
Shield themselves (OR Still can't tell which way)

Was the way she was going
Shaping up
And growing right on me
Taking my advice
Like a father
I've been holding on
Here forever
And I don't know where she's going
But hopefully
She knows not to turn around

REPEAT CHORUS 2x

She's going to prowl when the storm comes
And it'll come, and it'll come, and it'll come
Instead she says, "Can't get none".

REPEAT CHORUS 2x

She's going to prowl when the storm comes
And it'll come, and it'll come, and it'll come
Instead she says, "Can't get none".
