"Love In Motion"

Lovers in the springtime
Romance for a day
That flowers like a poppy seed
Never dying from slow decay
A promise that's a promise
Nothing more nothing less
A fountain of high reality
In a house of happiness
Love in motion
Fantasy
Sweet devotion
I will believe
If you believe
The teasing of a virgin
The giving of consent
The trials of joy and innocence
That so quickly came and went
A fad for generations
A husband and his wife
The flight of a male hummingbird
That will take his mate for life
Love in motion
Fantasy
Sweet devotion
I will believe
If you believe

Things I thought I'd never see
I start to dream about
We travel through eternity
So don't lie to me
I know too much
There's never been an easy way out
