They didn't listen when we said no / Now nobody's rowin' the boat Devil, you ain't takin' my hope / It's all I got left at the end of this rope Preacher, you stood right there / And let those bastards dare
My poor mother cried for days!
This is a prayer to wake up with new eyes
This is a prayer for every side

Your camera never caught the light
This is the end of the bad night
This is the end of the bad night
This is the end of the bad night!

Tracy wants to be in love / Andy wants the best for his son
Yeh, Dan may start that rock 'n roll band
And Nathalie could use a hand to make a stand Everybody standin' here / Don't let those bastards dare
Cause we got dreams unrealized!
This is a prayer to wake up with new eyes
This is a prayer for every side

Your camera never caught the light
This is the end of the bad night
This is the end of the bad night
This is the end of the bad night!
