2:30 you find me
you know just what you want tonight your shadow your silhouhhte is all i find inside me head you see me your little smile i know just what you want tonight i follow into your car i know just what it's gonna be for you and me

i know what it means for you and me you want me come take me and tell me where you want to go i follow into your room you tell me the things you want to do you see me my heartbeat your hands know where they want to go you shadow is back again please tell me why can't we be friends just friends oh friends

don't take me with all your words i know what this is gonna be you love him my best friend it'll never be the same again
