I could go a-runnin', jumpin', reachin' for the sky
(Reachin' for the sky)
That's all that I thought that it would take to buy your mind
(Take to buy your mind)
Then one day, I looked the other way

And, hey, did you ever see my town at sundown, all the hills around
Hey, put your money away
Hey, hey, put your money away
Hey, hey, put your money away

When somebody comes a-callin', knockin' on my door (Knockin' on my door)
Tryin' hard to sell me something that I have no use for (I have no use for)
I push the fool inside, I take a look outside

And, hey, did you ever see my town at sundown, all the
hills around
Hey, put your money away
Hey, hey, put your money away
Hey, hey, put your money away

I could go a-runnin', jumpin', reachin' for the sky
(Reachin' for the sky)
That's all that I thought that it would take to buy your
mind
(Take to buy your mind)
Then one day, I looked the other way

And, hey, did you ever see my town at sundown, all the
hills around
Hey, put your money away
Hey, hey, put your money away
Hey, hey, put your money away
