"Ev'rybody's Gonna Be Happy"

And I know, and I know
And I know that ev'rybody
And I know that ev'rybody be happy
As happy as you and me
'Cause I know, I know

Come on baby, let me tell you
All the things I wanna say
Come on baby, let me tell you
All the things I wanna say, and

Ev'rybody's gonna be happy
Which means you and me, my love
Ev'rybody's gonna be happy
Which means you and me, my love

And I know and I know
And when I see ya walking down the street
Well, it makes me happy to see you walkin'
It makes my life complete
'Cause I know, I know

Come on baby, let me tell you
All the things I wanna say
Come on baby, let me tell you
All the things I wanna say, and

Ev'rybody's gonna be happy
Which means you and me, my love
Ev'rybody's gonna be happy
Which means you and me, my love

And I know and I know
And I know that you and me
And I know that you and me be happy
As happy as we can be
'Cause I know, I know

Come on baby, let me tell you
All the things I wanna say
Come on baby, let me tell you
All the things I wanna say, and

Ev'rybody's gonna be happy
Which means you and me, my love
Ev'rybody's gonna be happy
Which means you and me, my love

Ev'rybody's gonna be happy
Which means you and me, my love
Ev'rybody's gonna be happy
Which means you and me, my love

And I know and I know
And I know and I know
And I know
