Misery

I know you got troubles but you don't have to spread it about

Misery

You moan and you groan but all of that I can live without

Well, until you stop worrying about yourself

You'll never get anywhere with me

I'll still be hanging in there but you're still a misery

Until you learn to laugh

You'll never come to any parties at my house, my house

And if you go on like this

The only house you'll ever visit is the nut house, nut
house

You're such a misery, why don't you learn to laugh?

Look in the mirror and don't take yourself so seriously

Well, dollar bills could fall from the sky

But still you wouldn't be satisfied

But I'm not going to let you depress me

Until you learn to laugh

You'll never come to any parties at my house, my
house

And if you go on like this

The only house you'll ever visit is the nut house, nut
house

You're such a misery, why don't you learn to laugh?

Look in the mirror and don't take yourself so seriously

Ah, ah, ah, ah

Misery

You're only happy when you're feeling totally down

Misery

I only ever see you when your chin's hanging on the ground

Well, until you learn to laugh at yourself
You'll never get anywhere with me
I'm down but I'm still happy but You're such a misery, well
You're such a misery, well
You're such a misery
