I wanna know what is to be
To see what life's cut out for me
I'm waiting for my fate
'cause I know I've done wrong
I wanna know just what's in store for me
I wish I had a crystal ball To see my rise and see my fall
I've done a lot of right,
But also done some wrong
I wanna know just what's in store for me
And so I'll wait a while And wait a little longer I'll just have to wait and see
I think a lot but I'll stop trying I'll just get old before my time
I'll live the life I've got But I don't sleep at night I wanna know just what's in store for me
I'll live the life I've got
But I don't sleep at night
I wanna know just what's in store for me
I wanna know just what's in store for me
