You wind me up, attach the leads
And put a shock through me, I never thought I'd need
On this chat show where you talk so sharp
Mouth full of razorblades hand full of bleeding hearts

Blue, blue polythene
I want that look in my eyes
Blue, blue polythene
Nothing to feel, everything's sealed
No one can touch you inside

You're giving me, you're giving me
Headgames like rollerball blood just like gasoline
Can't go to sleep don't want to go
I got stones in my face from that concrete pillow

Blue, blue polythene
I want that look in my eyes
Blue, blue polythene
Nothing to feel, everything's sealed
No one can touch me inside
Blue, blue polythene...
