You say you never knew you could feel like this
Or what the power of just one little kiss could do
Baby me too
You're wonderin' if your thunderin' heart is ok
Well if you're asking me boy, all I can say to you
Is baby me too

You say you're fallin'
You hear love callin' you
What a coincidence, boy
Ever since I ran into you
What you're going through
Is happenin' to
Me too

You say you're looking for the words to explain
How it feels when someone else feels the same as you
Baby me too
It's like what happens when two hot wires touch
Well in ten words or less boy that's pretty much what you do
To me too

You say you're fallin'
You hear love callin' you
What a coincidence, boy
Ever since I ran into you
What you're going through
Is happenin' to
Me too

Me and you are looking through
The windows of our hearts
And forever's looking better
'Cause we know it starts
With me and you

You say you never knew you could feel like this
Or what the power of just one little kiss could do
Baby me too

You say you're fallin'

You hear love callin' you
What a coincidence, boy
Ever since I ran into you
What you're going through
Is happenin' to
Me too
