We can sit around this fire
And let our spirits ride on out
Watch it as a flame gets higher
I can see it in your eyes
Whispers on the rise

Slip into the same old dream every night
Welcome all the things that could've been
I cannot afford this fight with my wit
Interstellar space got broken in

Remember how we'd sleep so still
Trees were singing love songs
Drowning in the maze of a summer
I can see it in your eyes
Whispers on the rise

Slip into the same old dream every night
Welcome all the things that could've been
I cannot afford this fight with my wit
Interstellar space got broken in

We can sit around this fire
And let our spirits ride on out
Watch it as a flame gets higher
I can see it in your eyes
Whispers on the rise

Slip into the same old dream every night
Welcome all the things that could've been
I cannot afford this fight with my wit
Interstellar space got broken in
