I like me, yo, you like me?
'Cause I like me, do you like me?
See I like me, 'cause He likes me
God likes me, yo, you don't like me?

I like me, yo, you like me?
'Cause I like me, do you like me?
See I like me, 'cause He likes me
God likes me, yo, you don't like me?

Short, big nose, big lip
Kinda stutter but I, but I never trip
Got my daddy's swagger and I walk with a limp
Got a hot wife, no need to be a pimp

Never been cute, never been fly
Since I've been changed got that twinkle in my eye
Got my grill fixed, now I smile when I speak
Tell me who that is, yo, that's the Jesus Freak

I like me, yo, you like me?
'Cause I like me, do you like me?
See I like me, 'cause He likes me
God likes me, yo, you don't like me?

I like me, yo, you like me?
'Cause I like me, do you like me?
See I like me, 'cause He likes me
God likes me, yo, you don't like me?

I just smile, I'm so content
And I ain't even got yellow stones on my wrist
I hear the world saying I'm supposed to be rich
But I don't buy that, man, I don't go with the trends

Go the whole mile, lose or win
I hope that's the impression that the CD's give
I'm more concerned about how they see me live
Than trying to get a house on MTV cribs

I like me, yo, you like me?
'Cause I like me, do you like me?

See I like me, 'cause He likes me
God likes me, yo, you don't like me?

I like me, yo, you like me?
'Cause I like me, do you like me?
See I like me, 'cause He likes me
God likes me, yo, you don't like me?

When the lights fade, I know that You see
More than my swagger, but it's You in me
From the storefront church to the packed out floors
They want an autograph but I'd rather give 'em Yours

Your ink don't fade, the crowd wants more
The King's on stage, the final encore
Can't believe it's me, now I'm chillin' backstage
Big nose, big lips, gon' get ya hands raised

I like me, yo, you like me?
'Cause I like me, do you like me?
See I like me, 'cause He likes me
God likes me, yo, you don't like me?

I like me, yo, you like me?
'Cause I like me, do you like me?
See I like me, 'cause He likes me
God likes me, yo, you don't like me?
