Verse 1

This is to my friend above, who showed me so much love and grace, by placing a smile upon my face, Its so hard to express the way I feel, bout a man I know he can heal your life, by dying on the cross, for sinners who were lost, lord I love you so much, yet im yearning for your touch (2x's)

And while im here today I just wana say, i wana say yeh ohh

Chorus

Watch over me and protect me, from the things I cannot see, let your loving arms surround me, from here to eternity,
lord i need your anointing, so my spirit can be free, lord I need you more,
and more and more, and more(2x's) Lord I need you more,
and more and more, and moooorrrre(about 8x's) I need you more and more,
I need you more and more(16x's)
