[LEAD:]

Heavenly Father, its me once again. your humble servant in your presence, with this fire burning deep down within.

I begin, by recognizing your power and also your grace, and how your children become one when we come before your glorious face.

When you look down from your throne I wonder what is it exactly that you see that keeps someone like you so patient with someone like me

I'm free!!, Not because of some self-rightous attempt on my part but, because of your unconditional love that you gave straight from your heart, Let's start:

[CHORUS:]

All that I have I give to you, all that I am is because of you, If you were to leave us what would we do? WE NEED YOU RIGHT NOW!

Just like the forest needs the rain, just like there's no joy without some pain
