This is a little song about a couple that used to be in love

And they had to break up

And they ran into each other on the street one day

And here's the conversation:

Hello friend, how has it been?

Ain't it wonderful, you've got a friend?

Though we've changed in our endeavors

I found we still some things in common

Ain't it strange but wonderful

That we... we're still... friends.

Yeahh!

Through our hearts, we've never parted

But through our living

We're friends, through friendship all

And the way we are when we're together

Lets us know that we still, love one another

Ain't that strange, but wonderful

That we... we're still friends, yeah

It ain't strange but wonderful

That we... we're still friends?

Hello friend

How has it been?

Ain't it wonderful?

You you got a friend yeah

You got a friend, yeah...!
