"I Am"

Are you searching, for the question
To the answers in your mind
Are you hiding, is it coinciding
With all that your afraid to find

There's so many reasons for you go outside

I am your answer now, I am your why and how
I'll bring hope to your world

Are you leaning on a feeling
It's hard to see the end
Are you longing for a song singing
A promise over you

There's so many reasons to spread wings and try

I am your answer now
I am your why and how
I'll bring hope to your world
I am your first romance
I am your second change
I'll bring love to your world

Why are you running from me?
When I've everything you need
I'm everything you need and so much more
Why are you running from me?
When I've everything you need

I am a promise kept
I am the all that's left
I'll bring life to your world
I am your innocence
I'll be your confidence
I'll bring life to your world

I am your answer now
I am your why and how
I'll bring hope to your world
I am your first romance

I am your second change
I'll bring love to your world
