King Kong, you gotta come home
You've a wife and family all alone in the jungle
Are you receiving OK?

King Kong you done what you shouldn't a did
You got a woman back home and a couple of kids
And they get so tired of waiting

And if we lived in another world
I'd be a boy and you'd be a girl
If we lived in another world
Who knows ...

I will repair all the pavements you've cracked if you come back and say you'll be mine
Yes, I will fix all the mortars and bricks
But a tree house will do us just fine

King Kong, you gotta come home
You've a wife and family all alone in the jungle
Do you remember OK?

King Kong, hanging out in LA
It's a change from New York
Won't you have a nice day
You may even get a movie come your way

And if we lived in another world
You'd be a boy and I'd be a girl
If we lived in another world
Who knows ... who knows ...

I will give back all the love you can give
If you're gentle and you will be kind
You stomping off to the US of A wasn't quite what I had in my mind

And if we lived in another world
I'd be a boy and you'd be a girl
If we lived in another world
Who knows ... who knows ...

I will repair all the pavements you've cracked if you
come back and say you'll be mine
Yes, I will fix all the mortars and bricks
But a tree house will do us just fine

I will give back all the love you can give
If you're gentle and you will be kind
Yes, I will fix all the mortars and bricks
But a tree house will do us just fine
