I know you're there
But you're just shy with me
You make me talk to a machine
You're everywhere
I know you'd feel alright
If I could get you out of sight

Tell me about it
You can tell me now
Tell me about it
Where do I find the words?

The power of speech just disappears
When you touch me
Like Planet Earth colliding with the Sun
Please don't tell me that I'm not the only one

I know you're there
You're never off my mind
How could you treat me so unkind?
I wish I didn't care
But I can't hide the facts
I need you near me to relax

And let me tell you about it
Where do I begin?
Tell me about it
I'm really lost for words

The power of speech has passed me by
When you touch me
Like Planet Earth colliding with the Sun
Please don't tell me that I'm not the only one
(Only one)

I can feel the ice melting
I can feel the Earth tilting
My heart is stampeding
Running, jumping, begging, pleading
You touch me
And let your love light up the sky

A touch please
Don't walk away or say goodbye
Touch me
Like Planet Earth colliding with the Sun
Please don't tell me that I'm not the only one

A touch please
Don't walk away or say goodbye
Touch me
Like Planet Earth colliding with the Sun
Please don't tell me that I'm not the only one
