Yeah...

In the beginning there was darkness and there was light
At the dawn of creation there was fear in the dead of night
There was thunder, there was flame
The whole wide world is driving me insane

Don't want to run, don't want to hide
I keep the fire buring deep inside
I howl at the moon, I pray to the sun
I've got a one-way ticket to kingdom come

I'm going back to the stone age
I'm going back where I belong
I'm going back to the stone age
Back where I come from

Telling the world I'm going back where I belong
To a place where the sky is clear, the wind is strong
Climb the mountains, cross the seas
Clear in my soul I want to be free
Sit on the throne, let 'em kiss the ring
'Cause I'm a stone age man (yeah)

(I'm the king) back to the stone age
Back where I belong
I'm going back to the stone age
Back where I belong

I like it

Yeah...

Back to the stone age (I'm going back)
Back to the stone age (I'm going back)
Back to the stone age (yeah)
Bye-bye, so long
