Your eyes had a welcome sign
Your lips said you'd be mine
You came and I knew it all the time

Your name I don't recall
I never knew you at all
I hope I'm not the best that you didn't find

Oh, love is blind
Love is blind
You're looking for love
I don't have the time, oh

No promises, no lies
The truth lies in your eyes
I want you and you want me

Love is blind
Love is blind
You're looking for love
I don't have the time, no

Love is blind
Yeah, love is blind
I'm not looking for love
But don't leave me behind

Love is blind
Love is blind, yeah
You're looking for love
I don't have the time

Oh, love, love
Love is blind, ooh
Love is blind, ooh
