"Odyssey"

From a far off galaxy
I hear you calling me
We are on an odyssey

Through the realms of time and space
In that enchanted place
You and I come face to face

Once upon not yet
Long ago, someday
Countless times we've met
Met along the way

Through the luminescent night
On beams of neon light
You and I in winged flight

As we cross the starry sea
Powered by what we see
Now and then, the victory

Once upon not yet
Long ago, someday
Countless times we've met
Met along the way

There's a child in a sun dress
Looking at a rainy sky
There's a place in the desert
Where an ocean once danced by

There's a song in the silence
Weaving in and out of time
We are notes in the music
Searching for remembered rhyme

On a mountain high, somewhere
Where only heroes dare
Stand the stallion and the mare

We have been and we shall be
Each other's destiny

One another's odyssey

Once upon not yet
Long ago, someday
Countless times we've met
Met along the way

Met along the way
Met along the way
