I went out last night to a place where the beautiful give death stares
So cold you could feel the ice form on your bones Dressed up like you're in a movie, your effort is amusing
Tonight but you'd look better if I was blind

Didn't you enjoy your self?
They held you up and put us down
Let me know the next time you'll be here
So I can stay at home

You're living like you're on TV like a protected species
I would love to see you when you're old
Just like winter roses in bloom I'll die before I'm like you
In time they will all know just how hard you tried

Didn't you enjoy your self?
They held you up and put us down
Let me know the next time you'll be here
So I can stay at home

Didn't you enjoy your self?
They held you up and put us down
Let me know the next time you'll be here
So I can stay at home

Stay there forever in your place
Where your friends are kinder to your face
Glamor is all you have
And I'm sorry that your life's that bad

Stay there forever in your place
Where your friends are kinder to your face
Glamor is all you have
And I'm sorry that your life's that sad

I said, "You'll be here so I can stay home"
