(Hey, mister, hey mister)

A world

(Hey, mister, hey mister)

(Hey, mister, hey mister)

I've got my world

Why should I think about the rain falling?

Inside lookin' outside

Tryin' to put one foot in Eden (Eden, Eden)

Come stay, you stay

Try looking sideways, try looking other ways

Imagine how I must be feeling

And each time I pray

I wonder which way I should be meaning

(Hey, mister, hey mister)

One step

One step away from you

I'm only one step

One step away from you

Hold on a minute!

Here comes the real world, I need it (Need it)

Say, I been sitting outside

So long, looking in it

Here comes the biggest world

The biggest world I've ever seen

Say, no need to tell me that

'Cause I know, 'cause I know

'Cause I know where I've been

(Hey, mister, hey mister)

One step

One step away from you (In the biggest world)

I'm only one step

One step away from you

Imagine how I must be feeling

One step
One step away from you
I'm only one step
One step away from you

I've got my world
Why should I think about the rain falling?

(Hey, mister, hey mister)

Try looking sideways, try looking other ways
Imagine how I must be feeling
Mmm, the world is reeling

(Ooohooo...)

I'll be waiting for you
I'll be waiting so long
Waiting for someone to tell me
What's going on (Oho, yeah)

Why should I think about the rain?
Why should I think about the rain falling?
Why should I think about the rain?
Why should I think about the rain falling?

(Hey, mister, hey mister)
One step
One step away from you (In the biggest world)
I'm only one step
One step away from you

One step
One step away from you
I'm only one step
One step away from you

(I can't find)
One step
One step away from you
I'm only one step
