Twisting and turning your spine changes lines all these emotions have you fucked up inside give it all up and commit suicide now you go and try to trade your life for mine hate me hate me tell me exactly how you feel when I am breathing down your neck tell aame exactly how you feel when I'm talking shit to your face hate me hate me hate me with your fist you told me to be myself and I want to be myself but how can I be myself with you screaming at me now that you're screaming at me now that you're screaming at me you never helped me out so shut your fucking mouth hate me hate me hate me keep it all inside lock it up inside keep it all locked up and hate me too much
