"Breathe"

The world stood still, when I first met you.
You caught my heart.
Things are never the same.
My senses numb.
The word still reverse repeatedly in my ear.
I want to see you again.
Its hard to breathe ever since then.
The coldness sweeps, warm tears again.
Its hard to breathe ever since then.
The coldness sweeps, warm tears again.
Something that you said, Ive always cherished within.
You took my hand.
Things were never the same.
Lying beside you now.
All alone in the room.
Always been so happy, since you mended my wound.
Its hard to breathe ever since then.
The coldness sweeps, warm tears again.
Its hard to breathe ever since then.
The coldness sweeps, warm tears again.
