"Last Goodbye"

Your hate sustains me,
Such suffering comforts me.
Your failures take me elsewhere,
Your choices set me free.

I know you watch me.
I know your every move.
This game is over.
There is nothing left to prove.

This is the end of Eden,
This is my last goodbye.
I've laid to rest the demons.
Still, I'd love to watch you die.

There is nothing left to cry for.
My blessing is your curse.
I've had enough of torture,
I hope you feel it worse.

I know you watch me.

I know you every move.
This game is over.
There is nothing left to prove.

This is the end of Eden,
This is my last goodbye.
I've laid to rest the demons.
Still, I'd love to watch you die.

There are no enemies left,
Such things are born from grief.
I grow stronger with every glance,
Each time my name you speak (you fing whore).

This is the end of Eden,
This is my last goodbye.
I've laid to rest the demons.
Still, I'd love to watch you die.
