Cheated out of living cheated out of love
My heart was so lonely lonely for your love
You trampled on my heart and turned my love away
They say that every heart will have a lucky day.

Cheated out of love you starved my lonely heart
You cheated with your kisses you made the teardrops
start
You walked right over me but honey that's okay
I hope to find someone and live again someday.

--- Instrumental ---

I tried so hard to please you I didn't mean no harm
But you wouldn't love me you drove me from your arms
You thought you were so pretty you flirted all the time
I had to stand and watch you I nearly lost my mind.

You cheated with your kisses you made the teardrops
You walked right over me but honey that's okay
I hope to find someone and live again someday...
