While you're dancing with a stranger
There where the other cheaters hide
Oh, what has happened to us darling
For I know my place is by your side.

I hate her eyes and laughing red lips
Those red lips that kissed away my cry
And I hate the life that you're living
For I know my place is by your side.

So why are you dancing with a stranger
And why have you cheated me and lied
Now you have left me for this stranger
And she's in my place by your side.

--- Instrumental ---

So why you are dancing with a stranger
And why have you cheated me and lied
Now you have left me for this stranger
And she's in my place by your side...
