(Jim Reeves)

Is it really over is it the end of the line
Don't tell me I'm losing the love that was mine
If you're really leaving take some part of me
So I'll always remember how sweet love used to be.

I wonder who's stepping into my shoes
Who can she be?
I can tell by your eyes our love has died
And it's over for me.

--- Instrumental ---

I wonder who's stepping into my shoes...
Who can she be?
I can tell by your eyes our love has died
And it's over for me.

Really over for me...
